WHAT'S COMING UP AT PFC

SEPTEMBER 4TH

CONCORDIA MANDOLIN AND GUITAR ENSEMBLE

Concordia Mandolin and Guitar Ensemble is a Melbourne-based ensemble comprising about 20 players of mandolin, mandola, guitar & double bass.

I wonder how many players we will have on stage ??

OCTOBER 2nd SUPER GROUPS NIGHT

WE have a Number of groups (ranging from beginners to quite experienced) which have popped up during and since COVID..We propose having a night dedicated to these groups

We will have Max's Mandolin Group, Barry's Violin / Fiddle Group, Eric's new Singing Group PFC VOICES Alan & Karen will be running a UKULELE WORKSHOP and will put their "workshoppers" on stage. Spot Acts will be limited to groups of at least THREE

THE PFC VOICES

The group known as THE PFC Voices meet at the Somerville Community House (Senior Citizen's hall) 2/21 Worwong Avenue, The sessions commence at 7pm and finish at 8.30, with a break for coffee and biscuits in the middle. Under guidance from PFC member Eric van Cuylenburg, seventeen singers attended the first night.

The objective of the group is to 1. Have fun. 2 Learn to blend and sing in harmony 3 Have fun.

Eric says "We would welcome as many new singers as are interested, and especially like to appeal to men of all ages. Real men do eat quiche and love to sing in choirs. Nothing to bring but yourself, an empty folder and a sense of humour."

HAPPY SNAPS FROM JULY CLUB NIGHT

EDITOR'S SONG OF THE MONTH

HEART TATTOO by Enda Kenny

CHORUS

Have you ever had your heart tattooed, With anybody's name?
Did they leave a mark inside of you? Will you ever be the same
Is the ink they left behind still runnin' through your veins?

Have you ever had your heart tattooed, With anybody's name?

V1.

Some wear love upon their sleeve or on the fingers of one hand
Some wear hate upon the other. Some wear a tribal band.
Some wear love like a second skin, They're naked when it's gone
It's just a thing they leave behind, and then they carry on...

V2

It's not like those autographs the stars might leave behind.
Not like some engraving on a bracelet you might find
No monumental mason can carve it out in stone
When you've had your heart tattooed, it's yours and yours alone

DID YOU KNOW OUR GREATEST COUNTRY SINGER WAS BORN DAVID GORDON KIRKPATRICK?

Slim Dusty, AO MBE (born David Gordon Kirkpatrick; 13 June 1927 - 19 September 2003) was an Australian country music singer-songwriter, guitarist and producer. He was an Australian cultural icon and one of the country's most awarded stars, with a career spanning nearly seven decades and producing numerous recordings. He was known to record songs in the legacy of Australia, particularly of bush life and renowned Australian bush poets Henry Lawson and Banjo Paterson that represented the lifestyle. The music genre was coined the "bush ballad", a style first made popular by Buddy Williams, the first artist to perform the genre in Australia, and also for his many trucking songs.

Slim Dusty "released more than a hundred albums, selling more than seven million records and earning over 70 gold and platinum album certifications". He was the first Australian to have a No. 1 international hit song, with a version of Gordon Parsons' "A Pub with No Beer". He received 38 Golden Guitar and an Australian Recording Industry Association (ARIA) award. He was inducted into the ARIA Hall of Fame and Australian Roll of Renown. At the time of his death, at the age of 76, Dusty had been working on his 106th album for EMI Records. In 2007, his domestic record sales in Australia surpassed seven million. During his lifetime, Dusty was considered an Australian National Treasure

DEFINING FOLK MUSIC...

This is what WIKIPEDIA says..... so it must be right !!

Folk music is a music genre that includes traditional folk music and the contemporary genre that evolved from the former during the 20th-century folk revival. Some types of folk music may be called world music. Traditional folk music has been defined in several ways: as music transmitted orally, music with unknown composers, music that is played on traditional instruments, music about cultural or national identity, music that changes between generations (folk process), music associated with a people's folklore, or music performed by custom over a long period of time. It has been contrasted with commercial and classical styles. The term originated in the 19th century, but folk music extends beyond that.

Starting in the mid-20th century, a new form of popular folk music evolved from traditional folk music. This process and period is called the (second) folk revival and reached a zenith in the 1960s. This form of music is sometimes called contemporary folk music or folk revival music to distinguish it from earlier folk forms. ^[1] Smaller, similar revivals have occurred elsewhere in the world at other times, but the term folk music has typically not been applied to the new music created during those revivals. This type of folk music also includes fusion genres such as folk rock, folk metal, and others. While contemporary folk music is a genre generally distinct from traditional folk music, in U.S. English it shares the same name, and it often shares the same performers and venues as traditional folk music.
